

SOCIO-ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT INITIATIVES

In investigating new Socio-economic Development (SED) Initiatives, we considered the ultimate objective of social development which is to bring about sustained improvement in the well-being of the individual, groups, family, community, and society at large. Our initiatives involve a sustained increase in the economic standard of living of our country's population.

THEO JACKSON SCHOLARSHIP FUND

📍 Jeppe Highschool for Boys

R480 000
in tuition and boarding fees

The Theo Jackson Scholarship Fund (TJSF) provides scholarships to underprivileged and financially disadvantaged boys at Jeppe High School for Boys. It is the largest scholarship of its nature in the country. The number of boys benefiting from TJSF has increased dramatically; from only one boy in 2006.

Tshifhiwa Ramashiya

Dax Zwang

Sinesipho Mbatha

Ubaidulla Abdula

Whilst we know we cannot change the world, we can change the lives of individuals therein and, by giving opportunities to these young men to become good husbands, fathers and citizens of South Africa, we hope we are doing just that, one boy at a time.

📍 Benoni 📍 Actonville 📍 Alberton 📍 Kempton 📍 Boksburg

EKHURULENI WELFARES

Non-profit organisations totally dependent on the support and funding by private and corporate donors and sponsors to supplement the inadequate funding from the Government.

Overall, spent R780 000

ALL WELFARES

500 Food Hampers donated to the welfares.

Checkups and repairs of Electrical Systems conducted.

Checkups and repairs of Plumbing Services sponsored.

BENONI CHILD WELFARE

Vehicle Servicing through EQSTRA Flexi Fleet workshops and panel shops.

Laptops with Microsoft Licences and WiFi routers donated.

The objective of the welfares is to protect and promote the interests, well-being, safety and development of children within the context of family and community and to safeguard the rights of children through a holistic, intersectoral, developmental and comprehensive system of social services.

ENKELBANTWANA PRIMARY SCHOOL

📍 Bulwer, KwaZulu-Natal

100 Food Hampers

20 teachers

500 students

Overall, spent R190 000

As the students travel roads busy with truck traffic, the school has a scholar patrol lady who fearlessly ensures their safety. Affectionately known as the "Lollipop Lady" because of her patrol sign, Irene is a true guardian angel for the school community helping little ones cross the road and reminding drivers to slow down.

Salary for "Lollipop Lady," Irene.

Patrol uniform for "Lollipop Lady," Irene.